HOME DEPARTMENT (POLITICAL—A.R.P.)

Council Hall, Bombay, 2nd February 1942.

No. S.D./A.R.P. 1063.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 51B of the Defence of India Rules, the Government of Bombay is pleased to make the following Order, namely :— DEFENCE OF INDIA RULES.

1. (1) This Order may be called the Bombay Fire-watching and Fire-fighting Order, 1942.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Province of Bombay.

(3) It shall come into force in the City of Bombay at once. The Provincial Government may by notification in the Official Gazette direct that all or any of the provisions of this Order shall come into force in any other area on such date as may be specified in such notification.

2. In this Order—

(1) "Controller" means the person appointed as the Controller to command an Air Raid Precautions Service constituted for any area under section 3 of the Air Raid Precautions Services Ordinance, 1941.

(2) "Occupier" means—

(a) in the case of any building or premises—

(i) occupied by the owner, or

(ii) occupied by the owner and by one or more tenants, or

(iii) occupied by more than one tenant, or

(iv) which are vacant,

the owner of such building or premises, and

(b) in the case of any building or premises occupied by a single tenant, such tenant.

3. The Controller or any person authorised by him in this behalf may call upon the occupiers of buildings or premises in any area by a notice published in one or more newspapers having circulation in such area, to take delivery of the sandbags which would be supplied to them under paragraph 4, either personally or through agents authorised by them in this behalf on such day and at such time and place as may be specified in such notice. Such day shall not be earlier than the seventh day from the date of the publication of such notice.

4. On the publication of such notice every occupier shall either personally or through his authorised agent take delivery, at the appointed time and place, of such number of sandbags as the person authorised in this behalf by the Controller may direct. On such delivery being given, the occupier or his agent, as the case may be, shall sign a receipt for the sandbags so delivered in the receipt book kept for the purpose by such person.

5. On the failure of any occupier to take delivery of the sandbags at the appointed time and place, the person authorised by the Controller in this behalf may deposit or cause to be deposited them at or near the building or premises owned or occupied by such occupier.

6. (a) Every occupier shall keep the sandbags delivered to him under paragraph 4 or deposited at or near any building or premises under paragraph 5 in such position and house them in such manner as the Controller or any person authorised by him in this behalf may from time to time direct. Every such occupier shall also be responsible for the custody and maintenance of such sandbags.

(b) If in the opinion of the Controller or any person authorised by him in this behalf, any occupier has wilfully neglected to maintain any such sandbags in good condition, or has misused them he may require such occupier by an order in writing to replace them within such time as may be specified in the order by fresh sandbags which would be supplied to him by the Controller or the person authorised by him. Such sandbags shall be supplied to the occupier on payment of such costs as may be fixed by the Controller or the person authorised by him.

7. Every occupier shall maintain at all times in the building or premises owned or occupied by him portable vessels, such as buckets or open tins, filled with water, in accordance with such scale as may be prescribed by the Controller.

8. Nothing in this Order shall apply to any factory subject to the operation of the Factories Act, 1934, or to any buildings or premises which vest in His Majesty for the purposes of the Central or the Provincial Government or in the trustees of the Port of Bombay or in any Municipality, notified area committee, local board, Cantonment Board or railway administration.

NOTIFICATION.

Order No. R. L. 1312—Legis. 33-41-1, dated Bangalore, the 27th January 1942.

Ordered that the accompanying Act to provide for the constitution of Air Raid Precautions Services which received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja, on the 6th day of January 1942, be published as Act No. II of 1942, in the Mysore Gazette for general information.

H. V. NARAYANA RAO,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department.

ACT No. II OF 1942.

The Air Raid Precautions Services Act, 1942.

An Act to provide for the constitution of Air Raid Precautions Services.

(Received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the 6th day of January 1942.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the constitution of Air Raid Precautions Services to carry out measures for the protection of persons and property against hostile attack whether from the air or otherwise;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Air Raid Precautions Services Act, 1942. Short title, extent and commencement.
(2) It extends to the whole of Mysore.
(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. The Government may constitute for any area a body to be called an Air Raid Precautions Service, and may appoint a person, hereinafter, called the Controller, to command such body in such area. Constitution of Air Raid Precautions Services.

3. (1) Any authority authorised in this behalf by the Government may appoint as members of an Air Raid Precautions Service so many persons who are fit and Appointment of members and officers.

willing to serve as such, as it is authorised by the Government to appoint, and the Controller may appoint any such member to any office of command in the Service.

(2) Every person so appointed to be a member of an Air Raid Precautions Service shall be given a certificate of membership in such form as may be prescribed.

Dismissal of members.

4. The Controller or any other authority authorised in this behalf by the Government may, by order in writing, dismiss summarily from an Air Raid Precautions Service any member thereof if, in the opinion of the Controller or such other authority, he fails to discharge satisfactorily his duties as such member, or is guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties as such member, or his continued presence in the Service is otherwise undesirable.

Functions of members.

5. (1) The members of an Air Raid Precautions Service shall perform such functions in relation to the carrying out of measures for the protection of persons and property against hostile attack as may be assigned to them by or under this Act or any other law for the time being in force.

(2) The Controller or any person authorised in this behalf by the Controller or by the Government may, at any time, call out a member of an Air Raid Precautions Service for training or to discharge any such function as aforesaid.

Bar of suits.

6. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Controller or any member of an Air Raid Precautions Service for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rules made thereunder.

Protection against prosecution.

7. No prosecution shall be instituted against the Controller or any member of an Air Raid Precautions Service in respect of anything done or purporting to be done by him in discharge of his functions as such Controller or member except with the previous sanction of the Government.

Penalty.

8. If any member of an Air Raid Precautions Service, on being called out under sub-section (2) of section 5, without sufficient excuse neglects or refuses to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his duties, he shall, on conviction by a competent court, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Rule-making power.

9. The Government may make rules consistent with this Act—

(a) prescribing the duties of members of Air Raid Precautions Services, and regulating the manner in which they may be called out for service;

(b) regulating the organization, appointment, conditions of service, discipline, accoutrements and clothing of members of any or all Air Raid Precautions Services;

(c) prescribing the form of certificates of membership of any or all Air Raid Precautions Services;

(d) generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

Repeal and savings.

10. The Air Raid Precautions Services (Emergency) Act, 1941, XXII of 1941 is hereby repealed. But any rules framed, anything done and any action taken in exercise of any power conferred by or under the said Emergency Act shall be deemed to have been made, done or taken in exercise of powers conferred by or under this Act as if this Act had commenced on the 19th day of August 1941.
